

Appendices

Appendix I includes a number of forms which illustrate some of the orders and devices described in the text. They were adapted from instruments used at some time or other in cases before various agencies. However, these forms are not meant to serve as a form book. They merely provide concrete examples of orders and devices described in the text. In actual practice, each case will require tailoring and departures from the example. Being merely examples, the forms remain largely unchanged from the 3rd edition, which in turn had retained many of the forms in the 1982 edition of the Manual. (Likewise, even though the Court of Federal Claims has changed its rules, Forms 18-a through 18-e, from the 1982 edition, remain excellent examples of matters discussed in the text.) Other forms in Appendix I have been adapted from orders or documents of more recent vintage, or from agencies other than those which were sources for the 1982 edition. Again, Appendix I is NOT a form book. In any event, current agency rules and practices would govern the drafting of orders or documents in particular cases.

Anyone wishing to contribute additional examples of forms is welcome to contact me.

Appendix II is a short bibliography of selected works related to alternative dispute resolution, and includes a selected list of federal government web addresses for various agencies.

Appendix III is a bibliography of trial manuals, pamphlets, periodicals, treatises, and style books, and works on writing.

Appendix IV is a selective list of books and articles related to administrative adjudication, administrative law judges, and other hearing officers. For the 2001 Interim edition, some articles and works on matters of state agency adjudication have been entered under their own separate category.

Appendix V is a very selective list of citations to the

MANUAL FOR ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES procedural rules of various federal agencies using Administrative Law Judges.

Appendix VI is a copy of the Administrative Procedure Act.
