IMPORTANT NOTICE: The regulations at 29 C.F.R. § 18.35 provide the following:

The Office of Administrative Law Judges does not have authority to appoint counsel, nor does it refer parties to attorneys.

Therefore, a judge cannot provide the name of a specific attorney to represent you. However, you may find the attached information useful. This document contains the names, addresses, and phone numbers of Black Lung Clinics and District Directors' offices across the country as well as information pertaining to the Black Lung Clinical Program of a law school.

If you contact one or more of the sources listed in this document, they may be able to assist you in obtaining legal representation for your Federal black lung claim. The Office of Administrative Law Judges does not, however, endorse or warrant the performance of any representative you obtain through a source listed in this document.

If there are any additions, modifications, or corrections to the list, you may call (202) 693.7542 and ask for the Senior Attorney for the Black Lung Benefits Program.
