In Re:

DESIGNATION OF UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES TO THE BOARD OF ALIEN LABOR CERTIFICATION APPEALS.

MEMORANDUM

Pursuant to 20 C.F.R. § 656.3, this Memorandum provides notice of the Administrative Law Judges designated to serve on the Board of Alien Labor Certification Appeals (“BALCA”). This Memorandum supersedes Designation of the United States Department of Labor Administrative Law Judges to the Board of Alien Labor Certification Appeals, 2020-MIS-00003 (Jan. 24, 2020).

Designation of Administrative Law Judges to Review PERM Appeals; En Banc Review

The following Administrative Law Judges are designated to serve on BALCA for review of appeals arising pursuant to 20 C.F.R. Part 656 (permanent alien labor certification – “PERM” cases), or in other cases in which the regulations require a BALCA panel to render a decision:

Stephen R. Henley, Chief Administrative Law Judge/Chair of BALCA
Paul R. Almanza, Associate Chief Administrative Law Judge
Carrie Bland, Acting Associate Chief Administrative Law Judge
Francine L. Applewhite
Theodore W. Annos

En banc proceedings will be conducted by a panel consisting of all BALCA members listed above, provided, however, that if one or two judges are unavailable, en banc proceedings may be conducted with a quorum of at least three judges.

Designation of Administrative Law Judges to Conduct Administrative Review or De Novo Hearings in Cases Adjudicated by a Single Judge

The following Administrative Law Judges are designated to serve on BALCA to conduct administrative review or a de novo hearing in matters for which the regulations require or permit an individual ALJ designated to BALCA to render a decision. See, e.g. 20 C.F.R. Part 655, Subpart A (H-2B nonagricultural guest worker program – “TLN” cases), Subpart B (H-2A agricultural guest worker program – “TLC” cases), and Subpart E (CW-1 nonimmigrant visa program for the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands – “TLM” cases).
