ORDER REMANDING CASE AND CANCELLING HEARING

On January 10, 2019, the Certifying Officer issued a letter denying Employer's request for temporary labor certification under the H-2A agricultural program. On January 16, 2019, Employer requested a de novo hearing of the Certifying Officer's denial. The case was assigned to me on January 18, 2019. A hearing was scheduled for February 7, 2019.

In February 7, 2019, the Certifying Officer filed a Motion to Remand this matter to the Certifying Officer for further processing of Employer's application. Employer does not oppose the Motion.
