ORDER DISMISSING APPEAL

This case arises from a request for review of a United States Department of Labor Certifying Officer’s (“CO”) denial of an application for temporary alien labor certification under the H-2B non-immigrant program. Following the CO’s denial of an application, an employer may request administrative review by the Board of Alien Labor Certification Appeals (“the Board” or “BALCA”).

On November 21, 2014, Stan Sweeney LLC (“Employer”), requested administrative review of the denial of certification in the above-captioned matter. On December 15, 2014, Employer notified the Board that it has withdrawn its appeal. In light of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered that this matter is DISMISSED.

SO ORDERED.
