STATE OF MARYLAND
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

)            )            )

Case No. 81-WPA-4

DECISION

Pursuant to a Notice of Hearing published on September 17, 1982, 47 F.R. 41314, proceedings were instituted with respect to the conformity of the State of Maryland unemployment compensation law with the requirements of sections 3304(a)(15)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. Section 3304(a)(15)(B)).

Specifically, the Maryland unemployment compensation law provided a limitation on pension deductions larger in certain circumstances than the ratio of the individual contributions to the total contributions to the pension plan which the Department of Labor considered inconsistent with section 3304(a)(15)(B). The Department had interpreted the limitation in Unemployment Insurance Program Letter (UIPL) 7-81, Change 1 (June 9, 1981).

Subsequent to the commencement of these proceedings, on September 23, 1982, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia held that a portion of UIPL 7-81, Change 1, was unenforceable because the Department of Labor had failed to comply with the notice and comment provision of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. Section 553. Calias v. Egger, No 81-2258. The Department of Labor, therefore, moved to dismiss the proceeding.
On October 18, 1982, the Administrative Law Judge granted a recommended order of dismissal.

In concurrence with that order, it is hereby Ordered that the conformity proceedings be terminated.
