CASE NO.: 94-OFC-13

In the Matter of

OFFICE OF FEDERAL CONTRACT COMPLIANCE PROGRAMS
UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Plaintiff

v.

PROVIDENT BANKCORP, INC.

Defendant

ORDER

This is to advise both the plaintiff and the defendant that on May 22, 1995, a daughter of the undersigned commenced summer employment with the Provident Bank here in Cincinnati. It is anticipated that the employment will continue until the latter part of August, at which time she will return to college.

Any party desiring that the Administrative Law Judge disqualify himself from any further participation in this case should file a Motion to Recuse as provided by the Rules of Practice and Procedure found at 29 C.F.R. § 18.31. The parties will have fifteen (15) days from the date of this Order within which to request recusal. In the event a Motion to Recuse is filed, it will be summarily granted and the case will be reassigned for disposition to another Administrative Law Judge in this office. Recusal should have no effect upon the scheduled hearing date.
